

New Learning Assessment 2023

- ❖ Students will no longer be required to pass a Learning Assessment with 75%
- ❖ The Online Learning Assessment site will no longer be used
- ❖ Students are now required to participate in a collaborative Doctrinal Mastery Learning Assessment experience
  - Teachers lead the Learning Assessment experience in class using the Learning Assessment Review in the appendix of the Teacher Manual
  - A Study Guide for students is available in the appendix of the Teacher Manual
- ❖ Students who miss the in-class collaborative Doctrinal Mastery Learning Assessment experience will need to make it up
  - Students may take the Learning Assessment in written form – Online students may take the Doctrinal Mastery Assessment quiz in Canvas
  - Students may participate in a collaborative experience with their teachers, or with a smaller group of students using the Learning Assessment Review
  - Students may participate in a collaborative experience with their family using the Learning Assessment Review