

Who Will I Be Sealed to in Eternity?

Robert is struggling. His parents were married in the temple, but now they have decided to get a divorce. Robert has always had a testimony of eternal families, but he wonders, “Who will I be sealed to in eternity?”

As Robert seeks answers to his question, he finds a statement in an article by President Henry B. Eyring that helps bring him peace:

“The Savior sent the Prophet Elijah to Joseph Smith to restore the keys of the priesthood (see D&C 110). With those keys came the sealing power, offering God’s greatest gift to His children—eternal life in families bound together forever. . . .

“For some, that eternal joy may seem a faint or even a fading hope. Parents, children, brothers, and sisters may have made choices that seem to disqualify them from eternal life. You may even wonder whether you have yet been qualified through the Atonement of Jesus Christ.

“A prophet of God once offered me counsel that gives me peace. I was worried that the choices of others might make it impossible for our family to be together forever. He said, ‘You are worrying about the wrong problem. You just live worthy of the celestial kingdom, and the family arrangements will be more wonderful than you can imagine.’

“To all of those whose personal experience or whose marriage and children—or absence thereof—cast a shadow over their hopes, I offer my witness: Heavenly Father knows and loves you as His spirit child. While you were with Him and His Beloved Son before this life, They placed in your heart the hope you have of eternal life. With the power of the Atonement of Jesus Christ working and with the Holy Spirit guiding, you can feel now and will feel in the world to come the family love your Father and His Beloved Son want so much for you to receive.

“I testify that as you live worthy of the celestial kingdom, the prophetic promise that ‘family arrangements will be more wonderful than you can imagine’ will be yours” (Henry B. Eyring, “The Hope of Eternal Family Love,” Ensign or Liahona, Aug. 2016, 4–5).
