

Pound the Pulpit

Today, you will share with the class.

1. Prepare by studying one of the 3 colored groups of verses from this week's reading. Be sure to look for the answers to the questions below.
2. When you are done, you will share your insights with the class

PREPARE

- 1.
2. Use verses from this week's material
- 3.

Read the verses on the handout followed by the commentary. Mark words, phrases, write principles that are personally meaningful to you.

As you study, ponder these questions:

- What does Jesus Christ want you to know and feel about His 2nd Coming?
- What messages is the Savior teaching you that inspires you to be ready to meet Him again?

POUND THE PULPIT

Context: Share the 1-2 verses that were most meaningful to you

Principle: Share one or two principles you learned from your favorite verses that inspire you to be ready to meet Him again?

Example: Share something from the handout, a personal example, a Conference story a quote, an analogy or object lesson—something that can help your peers understand the principle and why it's important.

Testimony: Share when you have you seen the power of this doctrine/principle in your life.

Invitation: What do you think God wants you to do because of this principle?
