

SERMON IN A SENTENCE

Study

- Study (fill in with scripture from this week's study) looking for one-liners that inspire you.

Choose

- After studying, choose your favorite one-liner and write a 1 minute "sermon in a sentence" using this simple outline:

Share

- Share the one liner from your pre-study that you brought

State

- State your principle in simple 2021 language

Share

- Share at least 1 additional insight, experience and testimony about what you learned.

Deliver

- Deliver your sermon in a sentence using the record function or typing it below.

Elder Neal A. Maxwell taught:
"The scriptures contain so many jewels over which we pass too lightly, especially some stunning one-liners."

(Elder Neal A. Maxwell, "Unto this Very Purpose").

A one-liner is a short, simple phrase that carries a lot of power—and the scriptures are full of them.

A great purpose you can have in your scripture study is to look for these one-liners.

Consider the following:

- "The battle is the Lord's" (1 Samuel 17:47).
- "Get thee hence" (Matthew 4:10).
- "Ye ought to search the scriptures" (Alma 33:2).
- "Ye must study it out" (Doctrine and Covenants 9:8).