During his address at the BYU Education Week devotional Aug. 19, Elder David A. Bednar urged Church members to flood the earth with gospel messages of truth. "What has been accomplished thus far in this dispensation communicating gospel messages through social media channels is a good beginning — but only a small trickle," said Elder Bednar of the Quorum of the Twelve Apostles. "I now extend to you the invitation to help transform the trickle into a flood. Beginning at this place on this day, I exhort you to sweep the earth with messages filled with righteousness and truth — messages that are authentic, edifying, and praiseworthy — and literally to sweep the earth as with a flood."

Today, we will take Elder Bednar's invitation and share a meaningful message from these chapters on social media.

1. Study these chapters/sections looking for principles, cross references, conference quotes, personal applications, etc.
2. When you are done studying, POST SOMETHING MEANINGFUL FROM THESE CHAPTERS ON YOUR PREFERRED SOCIAL MEDIA FEED.
3. After posting your message, share what you learned from this experience.

Use these social media guidelines from Elder Bednar: these should always be followed as Latter-day Saints use social media to convey gospel messages.

Be authentic and consistent
