

You've Got Skills!

- Today you will study (fill in with chapter or section from this week's reading) practicing the Come Follow Me study skills we've learned so far in class. Go through each of the verses and skills below to engage in this learning experience today.

scripture
block from
this week

Look for Gospel Truths (Principles):

- What were some of the difficulties experienced in these verses?
- What blessings were received?
- What stated or implied principles did you see in these verses? Mark or write them down in your scripture study journal

scripture
block from
this week

Ask Inspired Questions As you Study:

- What inspired question did you see? Mark it. Why do you feel this is a powerful, inspired question?
- What inspired questions do you feel these verses could answer? Write them in the margins

scripture
block from
this week

Look for Truths about Jesus Christ:

- What truths about the Savior did you read? Mark them.
- What do these truths teach you about who Jesus Christ is? What do they teach you about His motives, His love, and His power? How does it help you strengthen your faith and relationship with Him?

scripture
block from
this week

Liken the Scriptures to your Life:

- What is something the Lord asks of teenagers that might feel impossible? Insert it into this verse
- Read these verses adding your name
- Discuss how these verses can help you in your life right now.

RECORD

- What did you learn today?
- Write down your thoughts and feelings about this chapter/section in your study journal.

SHARE

- Share something you pondered about as you studied
- Share your testimony of a truth from your study
- Share an experience related to your study
- Share effective, righteous actions you can take to become more like Heavenly Father